Day by day itinerary

Aug 1, Sun: Departure

Aug 2, Mon: Arrival in Seoul (Incheon International Airport)

Upon arrival at Incheon International Airport (ICN) we proceed to passport control, then collect our luggage and meet with our tour leader and driver. Transfer to our hotel for a restful evening. Dinner & overnight at our hotel. D

Aug 3, Tue: WYD Opening Ceremony & Youth Festival Begins (August 3-8)

We begin our day by attending the official World Youth Day Opening Ceremony and Mass, likely held at a major venue in Seoul. This powerful event formally marks the beginning of World Youth Day. In the afternoon, we start exploring the various "Youth Festival" areas, which typically offer an exciting mix of concerts, cultural performances, vocational fairs, exhibitions, and opportunities for reconciliation. As evening falls, we immerse ourselves in the vibrant and joyful atmosphere of the Youth Festival, celebrating our shared faith with young people from around the world. B

Note (Aug 3–8): The bus and guide will be at our disposal from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM for use within the city only. Lunch and dinner will be on our own.

Aug 4, Wed: Catechesis & Spiritual Growth

We begin the day by participating in the daily Catechesis sessions—faith formation talks led by bishops from around the world and typically grouped by language. These sessions are a core part of the World Youth Day spiritual experience and help deepen our understanding of the faith. In the afternoon, we have the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and continue exploring the vibrant Youth Festival, or spend some quiet time in personal prayer. In the evening, we gather as a group to reflect on the day's catechesis and share the spiritual insights and experiences we've encountered. B

Aug 5, Thu: Papal Welcome Ceremony

Our morning starts with another enriching Catechesis session, where we continue growing in faith alongside pilgrims from around the world. In the afternoon, we join hundreds of thousands of young people for the highly anticipated Papal Welcome Ceremony, where Pope Leo XIV officially greets the youth of the world. This emotional and powerful event is one of the highlights of World Youth Day. In the evening, we return to the Youth Festival to enjoy performances or exhibitions that inspire and resonate with us. B

Aug 6, Fri: Via Crucis (Way of the Cross)

We begin the day with our final Catechesis session, continuing to grow in faith through the guidance of the Church. In the afternoon, we join fellow pilgrims in the deeply moving Via Crucis (Way of the Cross) with the Holy Father. This powerful and prayerful procession invites us to reflect on the suffering and passion of Christ. In the evening, we come together for group sharing and reflection, processing the spiritual impact of this profound experience. B

Aug 7, Sat: Pilgrimage Walk to Vigil Site

In the morning, we embark on the traditional Pilgrimage Walk to the designated Vigil site. As we walk together with pilgrims from around the world, we sing, pray, and feel united in our journey. By afternoon, we arrive and settle into our designated area, laying out our sleeping gear and preparing for the evening's events. That night, we participate in the beautiful Prayer Vigil with Pope Leo XIV, which includes Eucharistic Adoration, testimonies, music, and reflections. We spend the night under the stars, united in hope, prayer, and community. B

Aug 8, Sun: Final Mass with the Pope & Dispersal

We wake up at the Vigil site and prepare our hearts for the emotional and powerful Closing Mass with Pope Leo XIV—the culmination of our World Youth Day journey. At the conclusion of the Mass, we hear the exciting announcement of the next host city. In the afternoon, we begin our organized return to Seoul and settle back into our accommodation. That evening, we gather one last time as a group for a farewell dinner, sharing testimonies, final reflections, and perhaps a few tears, as we exchange contact information and celebrate all we've experienced together. Farewell dinner at a local restaurant. B/D

Aug 9, Mon: Full Day Trip to Suwon Hwaseong Fortress

This morning, we travel from Seoul to Suwon. Upon arrival, we visit the stunning Hwaseong Fortress area. The day is filled with exploration—walking the 5.7 km fortress walls for incredible city views, visiting Hwaseong Haenggung Palace, and discovering the four main gates and historic structures. Optional experiences include a guided trolley tour or even trying traditional archery. By late afternoon, we return to Seoul and enjoy a final, relaxing dinner together. B/D

Aug 10, Tue: Explore Seoul

After breakfast, we begin our full-day discovery of Seoul, immersing ourselves in the rich culture, history, and modern spirit of South Korea's capital. We start at Changdeokgung Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, before stepping back in time at Bukchon Hanok Village, where traditional hanok homes line its narrow lanes. We then change into our Hanbok for a walk through this historic "North Village," home to nearly 900 preserved houses. In the afternoon, we visit Myeongdong Cathedral, a landmark of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Seoul. Later, we explore the artistic charm of Insadong Street, known for its galleries, antique shops, and tea houses. We end our day at N Seoul Tower, enjoying sweeping views of the city and capturing unforgettable photos. B/D
